Officials Fear Fuel Shortage To Get Worse

Contempt Trial Of Miners Union Will Take Several Days

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Government officials feared today that the nation may go without coal production for another full week.

President Truman and his advisers are counting on the contempt of court proceedings against the United Mine Workers Union to end the defiant strike of 350,000 soft coal diggers but the answer will not be known for several days.

Trials Start Monday

The trial of the union starts Monday but it may be next Wednesday or Thursday before the court verdict is handed down. If the union requests a jury trial, the decision may be further delayed.

If the court action fails to end the strike, President Truman is expected to refer the coal crisis to Congress. Legislation already is being prepared to authorize government seizure of the mines but it could hardly be enacted before the end of next week.

Thus, government officials are fearful that an already critical fuel shortage may become much worse before mining operations are renewed.

Assistant Attorney General H. Graham Morrison sought to have the union's contempt trial moved up to today but was overruled by Judge Keech when the UMW vigorously objected to any advancement in the original date.

Both Trials Together

UMW General Counsel Welly K. Hopkins said he would decide Monday whether to ask for a jury trial. The union is entitled to have a jury hear the contempt charges against it while the court will render the verdict on the civil contempt count.

Both charges will be tried together. The civil charges is the one which can carry almost unlimited penalties if the union is found guilty. The UMW has paid fines totaling $2,130,000 in the past three years for violating previous court anti-strike orders.

An eight-man subcommittee of key union and industry officials is continuing court ordered bargaining sessions on a new mine wage contract but only "no progress" reports have come out of the sessions.

Final Red Cross Pre-Campaign Meeting Monday

Final organizational meeting of the American Red Cross 1950 fund campaign leaders will be held Monday at 12:15 p. m. at The Castle hotel. It is announced by the Rev. Fr. Ralph E. Hovencamp, campaign chairman.

Rev. Hovencamp urges all organization heads to attend this last meeting prior to the 1950 fund raising campaign, which will be held during the month of March.

All division heads are requested to have a report on the progress made so far in their respective divisions.

Chief Issue Is Developed In 'Mercy Killing' Trial

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MANCHESTER, N. H., Feb. 25.—The chief issue in the "Mercy Killing" courtroom drama—did Mrs. Abbie Borroto die of cancer or did Dr. Hermann N. Sander "eliminate" her?—remained a hotly-debated question today as the Sander trial went over until Monday.

As far as the general public and 100 newsmen covering the trial are concerned.

Mystery Accentuated

They just don't know, and the evidence thus far serves only to accentuate the mystery.

For example, if it is true, as Sheriff Thomas F. O'Brien has testified, that Dr. Sander confessed to him that "in a moment of weakness," he did away with cancer-ridden Mrs. Borroto in response to her husband's pleading, then why wasn't the husband, Reginald Borroto, arrested as an accessory?

If, as the defense contends, Mrs. Borroto died of cancer, the defense must prove it.

State Police Guard Coal Shipments

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 25.—(INS)—Pennsylvania State Police today set up elaborate protective patrols to guarantee safe delivery of coal bound for Pittsburgh hospitals and other institutions which are short of fuel.

The coal is coming from a mine near Imperial, Pa., already under contract with the United Mine Workers on the so-called "Kentucky Agreement."

No disorders were reported as the coal began moving today, and state police said their patrols were a precaution to avert any interference from striking UMW members.

A total of 700 tons of coal is to be shipped in to abet supplies of Pittsburgh institutions.

The Kentucky agreement grants miners a 95-cent-a-day wage increase and a 15-cent-a-ton royalty fuel boost.

Probe Shooting Of Pittsburgh Man

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 25.—(INS)—The father of two small children apparently shot and killed himself during a telephone talk with his estranged wife.

Police said the suicide victim was Hubert M. Houkom, a former Western Union employee.

His widow, Angeline, 23, told officers she had been separated from her husband for two months. While talking with him on the phone last night, she said, she heard a shot.

Mrs. Houkom and her father, with whom she was living, hurriedly drove to Houkom's house and found him with a bullet wound in the head. A pistol was found nearby. Houkom died in the South Side hospital.

U.S. Moves Nearer Break With Balkan Red Satellites

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The United States moved a step closer today to a diplomatic break with the remainder of Russia's Balkan satellites by freezing American assets of citizens of Bulgaria, Hungary and Romania.

A stop-payment order issued by the alien property custodian underlined Secretary of State Acheson's hint that a provocative campaign against the diplomatic ban slapped on Bulgaria down on the heads of the Romanian and Hungarian regimes.

The justice department announced that American property records of Bulgaria, Hungary and Romania have been impounded.

A spokesman explained that the order is designed to expedite the claims of Americans whose property in the three nations was damaged during the war.

Tydings May Head Probers

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—(INS)—Reliable Senate sources said today that Sen. Tydings (D Md.) will be drafted to head the Senate investigation of Republican charges that communism is rampant in the State department.

The high-placed informants said all arrangements have been made to give Tydings the delicately touchy job of reconciling the militant Republican demands for an "expose" using government loyalty records with President Truman's announced decision to keep the records under cover.

British Notables See Hard Time Ahead For Attlee

LONDON, Feb. 25.—(INS)—British notables were agreed today that the photo-finish election which gave the Labor party a narrow margin of victory means the government of Prime Minister Clement Attlee will be "hard-pressed in making future decisions."

Here is a roundup of what the notables said:

Winston Churchill—"Obviously parliament will be in a very unstable condition whatever results from this election."

Prof. A. M. Low, noted scientist—"I regret that the Conservatives were defeated because I believe Churchill is the only man in the world who can deal with Stalin."

Lord Strabolgi, leading Socialist peer—"The king's government has to be carried on and only the Labor government can carry it on but there must be a spot deal of give and take with the Conservatives."

Frank Byers, former chief Liberal whip in Commons who was defeated in Thursday's voting—"It may well be that the Liberals will join the opposition and hence force an early election, but that is not certain."

George Bernard Shaw, famed wit and playwright—"All I have to say is that so many candidates have been returned the Conservatives are able to represent the nation."

Lady Astor, first woman ever to sit in Commons—"I am not certain this election isn't the best answer. The Socialists made such a mess of things it will serve them right to face up to the consequences."

Urges Get-Together

The News Chronicle urged the three major parties "to get together to agree on what common action is necessary in the nation's interest."

The Times urged the Laborites to "seize this chance by asking themselves how much their dogged adherence to the irrelevant doctrine had been a factor in their own near downfall."

The Daily Mail described the election as the most astounding in Britain's history and added: "This is a government on a razor edge. The strain will be almost unbearable."

The Birmingham Gazette said: "We face a period of stagnation during which the government may be too fearful of the electoral consequences to make any serious decision. If so, the sooner we have another election, the better."

This is a substantial increase over last year's contributions, which amounted to $7,900.

Folks, to whom cards were sent, asking for contributions are asked to make their return as soon as possible, so that the books can be closed on this year's campaign.

Total Is Swelled

Returns from the coin boxes, from various civic clubs, industries and schools, have materially swelled the total since the last report.

Included among the gifts received, were: Bessemer, coin boxes and school, $146.80; St. Joseph's school, $32.50; Hickory Heights schools, $45.10; West Pittsburgh, $28; Harlanburg, $50.50; St. Mary's school, $54.53; Union township school, $76.85; Wampum and Chewton schools, $105; East Brook, $15.05; Plaingrove, $16.29; New Wilmington including schools, $307.21.

No Support Is Given Proposal For Coalition

Conservatives Under Churchill Make Big Comeback In Election

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(European General Manager, I. N. S.)

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Prime Minister Clement Attlee, reasonably cheerful despite his regime's close call in the general election, announced today that the labor government will "carry on" with its slim majority of two seats in the House of Commons.

Informed of the Laborites' decision, one Conservative leader remarked: "Yes, but for how long?"

Conservatives "Comeback"

Nevertheless, the announcement did not surprise the Conservatives who, under Winston Churchill, staged a tremendous comeback in Thursday's balloting to riddle the 140-seat overall majority the Socialists boasted in the last Parliament.

Leaders of both major parties made plain they are not interested in the idea of a coalition cabinet.

Attlee presided over a 75-minute emergency cabinet session at 10 Downing street. When it was over, reporters approached Herbert Morrison, deputy prime minister and lord president of the council, and asked him whether "everybody is happy."

He responded with a smile: "They couldn't be happier."

To Meet Wednesday

Members of the Parliamentary Labor Party and the organization's national executive were summoned to meet Wednesday morning prior to reassembly of Parliament.

Attlee will describe the reasons for today's decision to "carry on" and request support in the anxious time ahead. He will be nominated formally for re-election as leader of the party and this is expected to be automatic.

The labor party's representation in the new House of Commons will stand at 314—an over-all majority of two. The Conservatives have 294 seats, the Liberals and Independents account for 14 more. Four additional returns are expected next week.

Liberal Party Carries On

Leaders of the Liberal party, which polled 2,610,276 votes and thus played a major part in the results, rejected all suggestions that the party stand aside in a future election. A statement said: "The Liberal party carries on. Let there be no doubt about that."

Heath Arrives In Belgrade

BELGRADE, Feb. 25.—(INS)—Donald R. Heath, former U. S. minister to Bulgaria, arrived in Belgrade today and said that the Soviet satellite nation has embarked upon a vast campaign to smear the United States and Great Britain. He said the purpose of the campaign is to "overcome the 'basic liking' of the Bulgarian people for the democracies."

Heath, recalled after the United States broke diplomatic relations with Bulgaria on Tuesday, said that the internal situation in Bulgaria is "deteriorating very rapidly" and that the standard of life is "very low."

The diplomat said that Bulgaria's "unprecedented reckless" anti-democratic campaign has been under way actually since 1947 but now has been intensified.

Man Dies In Home Fire; Taxi Drivers Rescue Two Women

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—(INS)—A 55-year-old paper broker perished today, but his wife and aged mother-in-law were rescued by two heroic cab drivers who risked their lives to lead the women from a blazing $20,000 "dream home."

The victim, Luther M. Naumann, was trapped in the library of the three-story Oak Lane residence he purchased just a year ago.

His wife, Mabel, 52, was not injured, but 72-year-old Mrs. Elizabeth Dierkiss, his mother-in-law, was burned critically. The elderly woman had been sleeping in an upstairs room when the flames broke out.

The two women owed their lives to the bravery of the off-duty cabbies—William Martin, 26, and Charles Preistly, 24—who dashed through swirling flames to lead them to safety.

LEWISBURG FIRE

LEWISBURG, Pa., Feb. 25.—(INS)—Fire which spread to the first floor of a Lewisburg Veterans of Foreign Wars post last night brought damage estimated today at more than $7,000.

Water caused most of the damage to the memorial post, VFW home, firemen said. The blaze originated in an apartment next door.

Father And Sons Banquet At Y

Rev. A. D. Wenger Speaks At Dinner

Members of the Boy's department of the New Castle YMCA honored their fathers last night at the annual fathers and sons banquet at the Y.

Rev. Arthur Wenger was the main speaker on the enjoyable program that followed a delicious dinner of braised steak and all necessary ingredients needed to satisfy a group of men and young men.

The associate pastor of the First Christian church stressed the importance of father and sons relationship. He stated that many times, the success of a man can be measured directly from the healthful influence of a good father on his son.

Toast Fathers

An outstanding portion of the annual banquet is the toasting of the father and of the sons. Darrell Duncan was the speaker for the boys and his father, Glen Duncan, represented the fathers in the gathering.

Harold Pears, Y physical director, showed color films on YMCA Camp Fred L. Rentz. Swimming awards were given to several of the youths by their instructor, James Pears.

A recreational program of games and swimming followed the formal meeting.

and left ideologies which the election has thrown into such startling relief.

The statement said that party headquarters soon will begin to plan activities for the next election.

The cabinet's decision was conveyed to King George VI by Attlee himself by telephone to the royal lodge at Windsor.

The official government statement on the cabinet meeting said: "The cabinet met this morning to consider the situation arising from the general election."

Duty To Continue

"After consultation with his colleagues the prime minister has decided that as the House of Commons will contain a majority of labor members it is the duty of the present administration to continue in office, for the King's government must be carried on."

The statement concluded: "The prime minister hopes now that the elections are over all will once more give their full efforts to carrying forward the work of the nation."

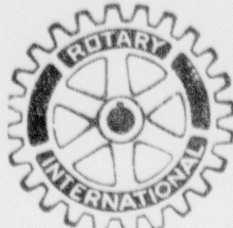

Returns Early Today

Final elections returns early Saturday for 619 out of 625 districts gave the Socialists 314 seats, or an overall majority of two seats. The Conservatives had 294.

The Liberal won eight seats, the Irish Anti-Partitionists, one, the Independent Parliamentary speaker, Col. Clifton Brown, one, and another Independent, one. The Communists did not win any seats. Five Scottish constituencies will not be declared until Monday and the last Commons seat will not be determined until March 6 in a special by-election caused by the death of a candidate.

To achieve a majority in Parliament the Socialists must have 313 votes and in a close vote could go down to defeat if any of its members were absent or deserted it.

With such a close margin for victory on important issues any wavering from the party line might force the Socialists to call for new national elections.

REPORT TWO ARE BEING HELD IN MYSTERY DEATH

of Salzburg near the Austro-German frontier. American naval informants in Vienna said there was "a possibility" that Karpe, who was returning from his station in Bucharest, was carrying a secret report to the United States. He was a close friend of Robert Vogeler, American businessman sentenced to 15 years in prison by Hungary on espionage charges.

Body On Tracks

The army refused comment on whether Karpe fell or was murdered pending an autopsy in Munich.

In Vienna the independent newspaper Neues Österreich said that a trackwalker, identified as Ignay Karner, found the body 220 yards from the exit pass of the Lueg Tunnel.

The tunnel is over two miles long and a train requires seven minutes to pass through it. Karner was quoted as saying that the torso was on the tracks and the severed legs were found 20 yards away.

The U. S. Provost Marshal's office in Vienna, which is conducting an overall investigation, said it was not able to confirm this immediately.

A spokesman admitted "we may never know the answer to this intriguing mystery." He explained that Austrian police did not inform the army until five hours after the body was found by which time many passengers had left the crack Istanbul to Paris Express at Innsbruck.

Situation Just Same

Federal Mediation Director Cyrus C. Ching told newsmen at the end of Friday's session: "The situation is just the same."

Prospects for any progress in the negotiating parley were further dimmed by the departure of UMW President John L. Lewis for Springfield, Ill. to attend the funeral of his brother, Thomas Lewis, who committed suicide there yesterday.

UMW Vice president Thomas Kennedy is heading the union negotiating team in Lewis' absence. The talks were scheduled to resume at 11 a.m. today and may continue Sunday.

But all I can do dear husband, Is go and tend your grave, And leave behind my tokens of love. To the best husband God ever made, I like to think when my life in this world is over, Wherever heaven may be, That you husband dear will be waiting.

At the door to welcome me. Sadly missed by Wife and Sons. 11*

GET BROODER HOUSE READY FOR CHICKS

A new crop of chicks will do better in clean quarters which are in operating condition, and free of drafts, with all remodeling and renovation completed before their arrival.

This means the brooder stove has been regulated, there is litter on the floor, and feeders and waterers are ample in number and filled and in convenient places. The good caretaker does everything possible before the chicks arrive to insure the best growing conditions for his next season's production.

Clean the brooder house immediately after it has been emptied of broilers or pullets. Brush the ceiling and walls, and scrape the floor, then scrub the floor and walls at least to a height of two feet with a hot lye solution. Spray with a good coal tar disinfectant or paint with crankcase oil or creosote to control mites.

PEACHES REQUIRE ANNUAL PRUNING

Recent trends in pruning peaches suggests the possibility of less severe pruning of young trees and heavier pruning as the trees become older, according to J. U. Ruef, extension fruit specialist, who spoke at the recent Lawrence County Fruit Day program.

Because winter injury to the wood often is more severe in trees pruned before winter sub-zero temperatures occur, Ruef recommends that pruning be delayed until danger from winterkill has passed.

In favorable areas, such as southern Pennsylvania, growers who have larger peach acreage sometimes start their pruning early in order to get the job done. But if the acreage is small, growers usually wait until spring to be on the safe side.

Fruit yields are reduced when pruning is delayed until after trees have passed full bloom stage, but rather than not prune at all during the year, have found it pays to prune as late as three weeks after blossoms have fallen.

Purchasing Agents Will Meet Tuesday

The association will also be honored by the presence of Tom Hudson, vice president of the Sixth District, National Association of Purchasing Agents and also Mr. Al Kostulski, president of the Cleveland Association of Purchasing Agents.

Instructors Club To Meet Wednesday

Red Cross First Aid instructors will hold their regular meeting Wednesday evening, March 1, at 8:30 at the Red Cross chapter house. It is announced by Miss Marguerite Uhl.

An election of officers for the coming year will be held. All members are requested to be present.

St. David's Day Will Be Marked On Sunday

Annual religious observance of St. David's day will be marked by the Star of Wales lodge on Sunday evening at the First Congregational church, 100 East Reynolds street. The Martha lodge of the True Iovites will also join in the service which starts at 7:30 o'clock.

The organizations have worked for three quarters of a century among the American Welsh as benevolent societies. They seek to give practical application to the ideals of St. David, the patron saint of Wales. The hymn book used at the national Gymnafu Granu will be used and the congregation will enjoy the singing of the old time Welsh hymns.

Rev. Thomas Jones will discuss the issue of whether "the spiritual tradition should be preserved or should it be sacrificed and cast into the great melting pot of our great western civilization?"

Catholic Veterans To Hear Speaker

New Castle Catholic War Veterans Post 741 will meet Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Eagles club and will hear a Red Cross speaker. A film will also be shown. It was announced.

Monday evening will be the last evening for the returns of an event to be held in Philadelphia on March 11. Members who plan to renew their memberships and new members are welcomed to attend the meeting. Refreshments will be served at the close of business.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—(INS)—To make an old hat new style—clasp a clip on the cloche.

Both jewelers and milliners are promoting a spring trend toward more dangling glitter on head-hugging hats. Large, multi-color or pearl and rhinestone pieces are being attached to brims, underbrims and hat bands.

Most distinctive of the many approaches to the gem-and-headgear combination is placement of a dangle-pin in the center front of a cloche-type hat.

Let one dangling bead flop against the forehead, a la the legendary three-eyed temptress.

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

(Letters intended for this column must be signed with name and address of writer.)

"CODE OF CONDUCT"

Below is a copy of a letter sent to the Senior high school on the recent adoption of a school code, which it is recommended be printed.

Student Councilor, Senior High School, New Castle, Pa. Dear Miss Bartlett,

Recently, there has come to our attention the "Code of Conduct," established by the students of our New Castle Senior high school, and introduced by our colleague, Dr. Robert Galbreath. We feel this serves not only our commendation and alert attention, but we heartily concur with Dr. Galbreath that it offers a challenge to every citizen of the community.

In a day when so many are despairful of "this younger generation" and young people are assailed from many sides, it is both refreshing and redemptive to learn that we have a group of youth in our midst, who have imposed FOR/BY and OF themselves, this excellent standard and resolution of character disciplines.

Indeed, they remind one of the list of thirteen virtues to which the eminent Benjamin Franklin gave himself, early in life, and which he checked daily for self-development in the art of successful living. Very definitely, these actions of Courtesy, Honesty, Loyalty, Reverence, Tolerance, Kindness and Self-respect, will bear wholesome fruitage, and we dare predict they will stimulate the more critical "outsiders" also in the grace of fine and noble living. Again, our congratulations.

Sincerely, THOMAS J. JONES, A. E. SIMON.

Good Taste By FRANCINE MARKEL

OVERCOMING SHYNESS

"I am told that I am stylish and physically attractive, but I am a social failure, just because I get a sort of stage fright whenever I go out to parties. How can I overcome this shyness and learn to do my bit conversationally?"

Answer: Shyness is excusable in the young—even attractive in the very young. But when mature people, extreme reticence is misinterpreted for either lack of intelligence or aloofness or unfriendliness.

You can overcome it if you take yourself seriously in hand, greet friends and acknowledge introductions cordially, refrain from talking about yourself, ask those you meet about their families, yet without being inquisitive, eschew gossip and religious or political discussions, keep abreast of the new movies, new best sellers, important radio programs—but comment on them in a few words, never in lengthy dissertations.

When in a group, limit what you say to a minute, if possible, unless you have something very important to impart. By all means, develop a sense of humor and as often as possible let this "saving sense" spice your conversation. Appear merry, even if you have to affect merriment. In other words, never take yourself seriously and bear in mind the truth of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's wise epigram: "Laugh and the world laughs with you. Weep and you weep alone."

Question: I have received an announcement of a small wedding to which only close friends were invited and announcements sent to acquaintances. Does this require a gift?

Answer: No. Announcements require no gifts, nor any reply whatsoever.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

What Sunday School Leaders Are Saying

With the first week of the pre-Easter attendance contest passed, various Sunday school superintendents and department heads are tightening their belts and wading in with grim determination to win the contest. Leader of Group D, Woodson W. Collins, superintendent of the Alliance Sunday school, 210 Pearson street says: "The teachers and officers of our school are working hard and we hope to maintain the leadership of Group D, which represents Sunday schools with an enrollment over 300."

Epworth Methodist Will Have Picture

"Like a Mighty Army", a new sound picture by Cathedral films, will be shown at Epworth Methodist church Sunday evening, Feb. 26, at 7:30 o'clock. Do the people in your church relax during the Sunday sermon and think about dinner? This is a story about the people of a certain church who took their religion seriously. Characters are real live people just like the members of your church. It is a comedy with a sound moral and full of exciting situations, where real people make real choices. School Players Score In Stage Hit, 'Dear Ruth'

School Play Cast
Presents Two-Act
Comedy Friday Night

New Castle senior high school students presented "Dear Ruth," a two-act comedy by Norman Krass, last night at the school auditorium. The production was the annual school play.

Authors since the beginning of time have stressed the importance of the written word. The influence increases ten-fold when the writings are love letters.

The complications that result from a series of forged love notes into two and a half hours of humor and good entertainment for a host of playgoers last night.

Forges Letters

Barbara Mackey played the role of an over-zealous, politically minded, patriotic teen-aged daughter of a well-to-do Long Island judge. Miss Mackey as Miriam had penned many enticing love letters to William Searwright and had signed the name of her beautiful older sister, Ruth, to all of them.

William, a veteran flyer of the Italian campaign (James Shira), returned to claim Ruth as his bride. Ruth (Ruth Simon) is engaged to a somewhat eccentric young banker (John Speed).

The eager courtship of the soldier, plus the influence of a happy wedding in the judge's home of William's sister (Ann Wygant), and her fiancé (Willis Peacock), result in Ruth's consent to marry the soldier and leave the poor banker to tend his promissory notes.

Play Roles Well

The well-rehearsed cast of 10 students all played their roles admirably.

Outstanding laughs were provided by the singing maid, Carol Foster; Judge and Mrs. Wilkins, James Smith and Nancy Reed, and John Speed as the jilted lover. Miss Simon added to her stature as an actress in the role of the sweet, diplomatic victim of her sister's pranks. She previously played the lead in "I Remember Mama," the senior class play.

John Speed presented Miss Clara Hartuff, the director of the play and the school's dramatic teacher, with a corsage during the intermission.

The band, under the direction of Joe F. Replogle, played 10 selections of pleasant listening before and between acts of the production.

The cast follows:

Dora . . . Carol Foster
Mrs. Edith Wilkins . . . Nancy Reed
Miriam Wilkins . . . Barbara Mackey
Judge Harry Wilkins . . . James Smith
Ruth Wilkins . . . Ruth Simon
Lt. William Searwright . . . James Shira
Albert Kummer . . . John Speed
Martha Searwright . . . Ann Wygant
Sgt. Chuck Vincent . . . Willis Peacock
Harold Klobbermeyer . . . Bruce Kerr

Isn't she plump and pretty? Poor old Doc enjoys the scenery but he doesn't like to see Betty getting—fat. That doesn't sound good does it?

VA Makes Proviso
For Vet Discharges
Sent To Harrisburg

Veterans applying for GI Bill certificate of eligibility for a government loan were instructed today how this might be accomplished despite the fact that original discharge papers are in Harrisburg in connection with the state bonus.

G. C. Barna, spokesman for the local Veterans Administration office, made the following announcement:

"Current Veterans Administration regulations require that each veteran wishing to establish eligibility for a GI loan submit to the VA his original discharge and/or separation paper.

"However, in view of the fact that the originals of these required forms are temporarily unavailable because they have been submitted for the Pennsylvania state bonus, the VA will accept temporarily the following forms: Army—Separation Qualification Record, Form 100; Navy and Coast Guard—properly executed carbon copy of the Notice of Separation, Form 553; Marine Corps—a properly executed carbon copy of Report of Separation, Form No. 78 PD.

"If any of these emergency forms are submitted to establish eligibility, the form will be retained in the Pittsburgh Regional office of the VA pending submission of the required original, at which time all forms will be returned to the veteran.

"Photostatic copies and certified copies of the record of discharges which have been recorded at county courthouses are not acceptable."

IS IT WORTH 30 CENTS TO YOU?

Once a year the American Red Cross makes its appeal for funds to carry on its far-flung program of service. Disaster relief, service with the troops, blood banks, these services the Red Cross is prepared to offer at a minute's notice.

Our share in filling the till for the coming year's needs is about thirty cents each for all of us. Is it worth it?

Is it worth thirty cents to you to know that whenever and wherever disaster strikes, trained rescue workers and proper equipment will be on the job within the hour?

The dividends in service in satisfaction are heavy for that average investment of thirty cents each. Let's do our share.

Washabaugh Explains Failure Of Titan-Duquesne Garden Tussle

The complete history of the scheduling and calling off of a proposed Westminster-Duquesne basketball game at Duquesne Gardens in Pittsburgh was revealed yesterday by Coach Grover Washabaugh at Westminster chapel services.

Westminster, in its class, is undoubtedly the outstanding basketball team in the Tri-State area. The Ducks are one of the outstanding teams of the country and a match between these two schools was a promoter's dream.

As Washabaugh related the story Friday, the Garden promoter realizing that the clubs were not matched this season, attempted to book an extra game for the Garden with the leading Tri-State area teams as opponents.

Both Schools Agree

During the Duquesne-Washabaugh tilt at the Garden, a page boy was sent to the box of Coach Washabaugh and assistant coach Buzz Ridd by the Garden booker. He proposed a February 27 date for a match. This was acceptable to Washabaugh and Duquesne, although both teams are playing heavy schedules this season.

The promoter also told the genial Titan tutor that a capacity crowd at the Garden netted $8,400. Expenses for the big house ran $1500. He proposed that the two schools and the Garden split the rest of the profit three ways. This would amount to more than $2000 each.

Coach Grover said he would accept for a flat $2000 guarantee, without reservations as to the size of the crowd. This was agreeable and the two men shook on the deal. The promoter was anxious to make this a top-attraction and wanted to announce the scheduling of the game during the same time then being played at the Garden.

Defers Announcement

Washabaugh, however, requested that the announcement be deferred until he had opportunity to talk with school authorities back in New Wilmington. This was agreed and Washabaugh made arrangements to call the Garden in a few days.

The call was made as promised and the first hitch developed. The Garden staff revealed that the Ducks had demanded 1000 free student tickets. This would cut deeply into the net receipts and under these circumstances the promoter stated that the most he could give Westminster would be $1000. Washabaugh replied that as far as he was concerned the arrangements had been made and shook on at the Garden and that his school wasn't going to be a part of this latter "deal".

Hence, no game developed and that ended the formal negotiations.

Wrong Slant

However, a Pittsburgh newspaper carried the story that Westminster didn't want to play Duquesne and that the Titans were demanding more money than any visiting team at the Garden had received this year. It even quoted the Garden promoter as stating that the only team that he would offer $2000 to would be Notre Dame.

This resulted in another outbreak of talk and rumors about the game, and a lot of letters of protest were sent from Westminster students to the Pittsburgh paper.

Yesterday Coach Washabaugh asked the students to call off the letter-writing and realize that there had just been some misunderstanding.

Coach's talk put a lot of people straight on the issue and probably wrote finish to what could have been the outstanding ball game of the year in this district.

The Titans meet Allegheny tonight at Meadville.

Momentous NCAA Sessions Begin

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—(INS)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association's 17-member executive council began a weekend session in Chicago today that may change the way of living for all 279 of the group's members.

International News Service learned that one of the major items on the agenda was a proposal to liberalize scholarships and financial aid to athletes.

Needs Four Points For Scoring Record

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 25.—(INS)—George King, high-scoring Morris Harvey ace, needs only four points tonight against Alderson-Broadus to set a single season basketball scoring record.

The current record of 777 was established during the 1941-42 season by "Brooms" Abramovic of Salem College.

MAHONING WINS

Mahoning junior high edged Shenango junior high, 27-26, Friday in a practice game at Mahoning. Alexander scored 14 points for Shenango. Don Runyon was high for Mahoning with seven.

Sportsmen Air Banquet Plans

Dinner, Show, Display To Feature April 13

Lawrence County Council of Sportsmen's banquet plans, April 13, in the Cathedral, were discussed by council officers, and also officers of affiliated organizations last night in the Ecclesian club, according to George Bolinger, chairman of the affair. He was named to that role by President Henry Rodgers.

It was decided to have a variety or vaudeville show, which will include the United Effort quartet following the dinner which will cost two dollars a plate. Messrs. Hamilton Ray and Helling were named to assume charge of the entertainment feature.

There will also be a bird show building feature in connection with the show. It will be for members of the junior sportsmen throughout the country and will be under the direction of Howard Glasgow, Enon Valley Rod & Gun club.

There will be a large display of sporting equipment in one of the large rooms in the Cathedral. All kind of equipment will be on display. This feature, as well as awards to be made at the banquet will be in charge of Eddie D. Fritz and Joseph Kravnak.

A resolution was adopted commending Clinton B. White for his service, as an efficient and impartial fish protector of Lawrence county. Mr. White submitted his resignation to the State Fish commission recently.

The council and affiliated clubs have a membership of 3000.

Favor Coaltown At Hialeah Today

MIAMI, Feb. 25.—(INS)—A sloppy track and a 132-pound burden slow the pace but mighty Coaltown is an overwhelming favorite to win today's $50,000 Widener Handicap at Hialeah for the second consecutive year.

The Comet of Calumet Farm will have 10 challengers and will yield a staggering weight of anywhere between 14 and 28 pounds to the opposition. But the five-year-old bayer of the Devil's Red and Blue is a 2 to 5 betting choice in this thirteenth running of Florida's number one racing event.

Conspicuous among the absentees are Coaltown's stablemate, Armed, and Mrs. E. L. Hopkins' Three Rings.

Three More Sian Phillie Contracts

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—(INS)—Two veterans and a rookie infielder agreed to terms with the Phillies today.

A spokesman for the National League club said he has received the contracts of veterans Hank Borowy, a pitcher, and shortstop Eddie Miller, and rookie Shortstop Alex Garbofski.

Young Garbofski played with Toronto last season when he hit 269.

Pitt Underdogs Needs Four Points

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 25.—(INS)—A weak Pitt team, which has been conceded little chance of victory tonight, nonetheless will be gunning for a tremendous upset in meeting West Virginia at the stadium pavilion in Pittsburgh.

Last season the Panthers snapped a long West Virginia winning streak to beat the mountaineers in Morgantown.

Wampum High Indians Face Rugged Moon Township Five Next Tuesday

Wampum High's first-round opponent in the WPIAL class B play-offs, Moon Township, is a big, rugged quintet.

The Moon warriors, like Wampum, had no runaway in winning Section 16— and suffered a loss to Neville Township in the five-team circuit. However, the Tuesday night opponent, on the Brighton floor of the county champs, plays in a fast circuit for B circles and have held up very well in competition against some of the smaller A teams in the area.

Most notable of the latter's achievements was a recent 55-to-48 triumph over Baldwin high school. The Baldwin Highlanders were runners-up to the Bill Douglass-coached Brentwood in Section 4-A.

Moon's outstanding player is Richie, a 6-4 colored boy who plays either guard or center. Richie is the team's leading scorer and ace rebounder. He is considered the most rugged individual on a team noted for that type of play.

Pulaskis Await Boosters Battle

Pulaskis Meet East Brook Tonight; Polish Falcons Sunday

The K. Pulaski "Big Five" will be out to end their three game losing streak tonight at East Brook. The Pulaskis will also be out to better the margin of victory that the Hank A. C. hung on the Boosters in their only meeting so far this season.

This will be the initial meeting between the two teams. This will serve as a notice as to who should be watched in the coming journey. The Pulaskis will floor their entire touring squad.

Meet Falcons Sunday

In the preliminary game the East Brook Boosters will meet a fast local quintet which begins at 7 p. m. The main tilt will begin at 8:15 p. m.

Sunny the Pulaskis will try to get an edge on the Polish Falcons at the K. P. Hall, meeting the Miller Avenue quintet at 3:30 p. m., following a fast preliminary game between the two reserve teams from both squads.

A packed house is expected to witness these two fine attractions tonight at East Brook and Sunday at the K. P. Hall.

College Track Stars Competing

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—(INS)—It will be crew cuts and the old college try at Madison Square Garden tonight where the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletics of America finds its annual track meet taking on East vs. west overtones.

Actually, it's all the eastern colleges vs. one midwesterner, defending champion Michigan State. But the Spartans will be hard to overhaul. They scored 35 2/5 points to win the meet last year, and the only scorer not returning contributed only two points.

Yale, runner-up last year, also has a veteran squad back and thus becomes the favorite to dethrone the Spartans if anybody does. A good darkhorse possibility is Army, undefeated in dual competition.

Dodgers Have 39 Men Under Contract

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—(INS)—The Brooklyn Dodgers were assured today of going to spring training next week with all 39 members of their roster under contract.

President Branch Rickey announced the signing yesterday of Rex Barney, perennially disappointing righthanded pitcher, and Bob Morgan, brilliant infielder up from the International League.

TRAP AND SKEET SHOOT

There will be a trap and skeet shoot Sunday at the Lawrence County Sportsman range at the Harbor, 2 to 6 o'clock it was announced today by Paul Crabie.

It used to be that gentlemen preferred blondes, but now the women prefer blonde wrestlers.

Ricks-Glassport To Clash Sunday

Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock the roller-hockey fans of New Castle will see a rip-roaring, spine-tingling match at the Arena with the J. R. Rick team of this city battling the Glassportians.

Coach Lee Stoops and his Rick players are anxious to atone for a 1 to 0 defeat plastered on them at the Glassport recently. "We'll be ready for them tomorrow," Stoops announced.

Fans who like lots of action will get it Sunday at the Arena, this roller-hockey game having no equal for being rough and exciting.

Mt. Jackson Indies Host Wampum Five

Mt. Jackson Indies host the strong Wampum Merchants tonight at 8 o'clock on the Mt. Jackson High floor.

Big Bill Emery and Frankie Webster will attempt to spark the Indie five back onto the win trail in the pre-tournament test between two of the entries.

A large crowd is anticipated for the contest.

Panther Grid Stars Tangle With Morellas

Ahepas Vs. Cleveland In Twin Bill Tonight At Washington Floor

One of outstanding basketball attractions of the waning 1950 season will be unfolded tonight at Washington high court with a twin-bill being played, the first game at 7 o'clock.

In the preliminary tussle veteran coach Nickie Lucas will send his New Castle Ahepas into battle with the strong Sons of Pericles team of Cleveland. The "Fighting New Castle Spartans" will have a strong all-Greek five available and a lively contest is in the offing. The Ahepas are members of the Greater Pittsburgh district Greek league.

Morellas vs Gridders

The Morella Stars will play the University of Pittsburgh football luminaries in the main attraction at 8:15 o'clock. In the Pitt Panther line up will be Bobby Lee, Lindy Lauro, Jimmy Joe, Robinson, Carl DePasqua, Bobby Plotz, Short and Nick Bokkavac.

Fans will get a real close-up of these great Pitt stars in action. They possess real basketball cunning and will give the vaunted Morellas a real battle all the way. Coach Nickie Ross of the Morellas will field his strongest possible lineup in an endeavor to upset the highly favored Pitters.

Frank Morella has gone to great expense in bringing this outstanding attraction here and a big crowd will no doubt wend its way to the Washington high floor. The Morellas are pointing for the big Optimist tourney to be staged here next month.

Wilt-Gehrmann To Race Again

Disputed New York
Race Will Be Re-Run
March 18, At Chicago

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—(INS)—FBI Agent Fred Wilt and bespectacled Don Gehrmann of the University of Wisconsin will run-off the most disputed footrace in the history of indoor track at the 14th annual Chicago Relays March 18. Officials of the event announced today that they have received entries from both runners for the Banker's mile.

Wilt and Gehrmann finished so closely in the Wannamaker mile of the recent Millrose games in New York that they were both timed at 4:09.3. Ten minutes after the race Gehrmann was proclaimed the winner.

Decision Appealed

Approximately two weeks later the decision was reversed and the former Indiana runner was declared the victor.

Never in track history had there been a closer finish. Never in track history had there been so much confusion. And the dispute still rages.

An appeal for Gehrmann to be

Syracuse Stings Olympians, 72-67

(By International News Service)

The flashy Indianapolis Olympians, who have been setting the pace in the Western division of the National Basketball Association all season, find themselves in second place today.

As a result of their 72 to 67 defeat by the powerful Syracuse Nationals last night, the Olympians now trail Anderson by half a game. Other games had little bearing on the standing of the leaders. Boston walloped Washington, 89 to 74, Chicago beat St. Louis, 77 to 62, and Baltimore defeated Philadelphia, 77 to 69.

Skiing Conditions Are Fair To Good

HARRISBURG, Feb. 25.—(INS)—Skiing conditions will be fair to good in the northern portions of the state and poor to fair in the Pocono mountains over the weekend, the U. S. weather bureau reported today.

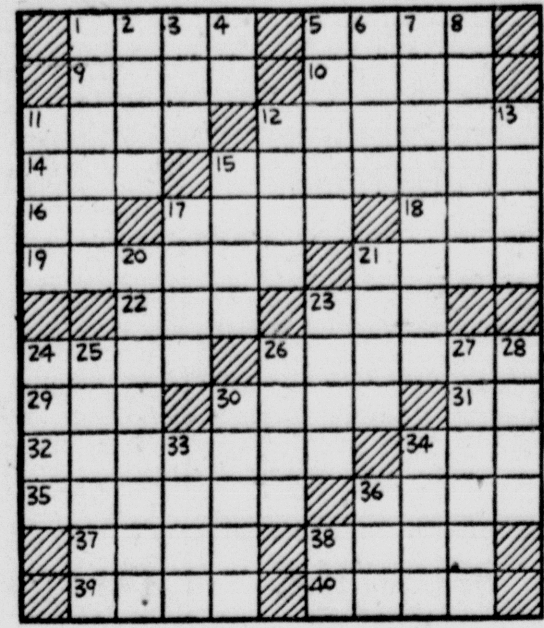

Up to eight inches of snow covers north and northeastern Pennsylvania while less than two inches blankets the central and southwestern mountains, the weather bureau reported. Below freezing temperatures are predicted throughout Saturday.

Mercy Slaying And Suicide

MIAMI, Feb. 25.—(INS)—Miami police termed the death of a jeweler and his five-year-old spastic daughter an "apparent mercy slaying and suicide" after finding their bodies Friday in his downtown jewelry shop.

Little Dorothy Ann Clark, a spastic cripple since birth, had been drowned in a corrugated wash tub filled with water.

Her father, 37-year-old Edwin Clark, died of poisoning. The bodies were found by Clark's assistant, Louise Underwood, 19, when she opened the shop on Friday morning. Police said the two deaths apparently occurred during the night.

Constable O. D. Henderson quoted Miss Underwood as saying Clark had been "depressed" for some time and talked about suicide about a week ago. She said Clark remarked: "If I go, I'll take Dorothy with me."

Clark's wife collapsed when told of the deaths and was taken to the same hospital where the bodies of her husband and daughter were recovered.

Harlansburg P.T.A. Sponsors Scout Troop At School

Members of the Harlansburg Parent-Teachers association met recently in the school with president, Martha North, conducting business. Two selections were sung by a group of students under the direction of Esther Eakin, music supervisor.

Rev. Joseph Leichter, chairman of the Boy Scout committee, was asked to give a report. Members were pleased to hear that Glenn Thompson, a local resident, had volunteered his services as scout master. Jess Hunt and game warden, Cal Hooper, will serve as assistants. Rev. Leichter explained the various costs involved, and the organization voted to finance $27 toward fees, materials and clothing. Twelve dollars of this amount is to be used for manuals and shirts for the scout masters. The Harlansburg vicinity feels that this is a great achievement in the community, and the enthusiasm of the boys is proof of the success of the venture.

It was stated earlier that the Harlansburg Garden club would sponsor a Girl Scout troop, but no definite progress has yet been made.

Mr. Hooper, a fairly newcomer to the community, was introduced to the members, and gave a short talk on scout work. He also complimented the group on its splendid progress since its organization in 1946.

Founder's Day
A short skit commemorating Founders Day was given under the direction of Henrietta Johnson. Those taking part were Leona

Black, Mildred Allison, Martha McKibben, Henrietta Johnson, Martha North, and Ruth Cox. Contributions were then received to be sent to the State P.T.A. Congress.

Mabel Kneram, program chairman, announced that the program scheduled for the evening would be postponed due to unavoidable circumstances. Professor Irwin Stunkard then showed a film on the "Pasteurization of Milk."

Following roll call, it was decided that Miss Moorehead's fourth and fifth grade pupils had been awarded the fish bowl for having the highest number of mothers present at the meeting. They will be permitted to keep the fish bowl in their room until the March meeting.

Members were invited to the luncheon where delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.
